Lemonade makers become rainmakers, donating $16,000 to Stony Brook Children's Hospital
